

7521362139.txt

With many of our rights being taken from the US citizen this is just one more being taken if there is no net neutrality. I as a citizen of the US have a right to net neutrality without big corporations. They will just increase costs with is hard to manage with the high costs of everything else. I have a right to privacy even though others in government think otherwise