

7521362151.txt

It is extremely important to me that the major internet providers do not have the power to control my internet speeds based on usage or whatever criteria they decide to use to not provide competitive pricing and maximum internet speed. I have been paying top dollar for the "fastest" internet service and it has been horrendously slow especially at arbitrary times. I am pro net neutrality. The present conditions are unacceptable.