

7521363942.txt

Net neutrality is imperative in keeping our constitutional rights. Freedom of speech will be meaningless because the corporations will effectively control and prevent access opposing views. This has very scary ramifications for our future. Please!! You are in a position to protect us and our children. Access to sites freely have helped my daughter get the medical care she needs because I could research without the corporation's agenda put before her wellbeing. Please, please help us keep net neutrality.