

7521366775.txt

I believe that it is essential for the US government to protect and promote an open internet. All data should be handled equally and without bias toward the financial gain of a select few internet service providers. Thank you for this opportunity to comment.