

7521370185.txt

The internet is the only vehicle for free human expression, untainted by the force and power of big, very big, money. We need to keep net neutrality, so all voices remain equal. The internet, as is, is a Godsend. Keep it that way and you and your children's children will benefit.