

7521372497.txt

Please do not pass this rule as proposed. It would be better to re-define internet service providers as common carriers so that they could not discriminate against or regulate content.