

7521374913.txt

Please, for the sake of everything this country stands for... you cannot allow ISPs to force us to bend over even further. In the face of all of this, how can you continue to even consider, let alone enact, such restrictive policies? In the face of all of the public outcry, can you seriously consider NOT declaring ISPs Title II Common Carriers? Stand up for America, and make it happen!