

7521375482.txt

We are new rural residents (18 months) and we have discovered RFDTV to be an excellent source of information for our new lifestyle. We regularly check on this channel for relevant information. I particularly enjoy the programming about farm equipment. Rural programming has an important place in American viewership. Please keep / make this programming available nationwide. Don't pull it from any of the markets - whether rural or urban. It is vital!