

7521377155.txt

Our family watches RFDTV and Rural TV more than all other channels combined. This type of programming is in a class by itself and serves a huge public purpose. Any mergers or regulation changes that would have a negative impact on the entire rural population of this country and a large segment of urban areas as well, should not be considered. As long as this type of broadcasting is given equal consideration I have no objections to any acquisitions or mergers that may be considered.

Ron Stotler