

7521378823.txt

Where is the fiber optic service that big telecom promised us 20 years ago when our government was going to provide it? Internet providers should be classified as public utilities because they are telecom. Why do we not have download speeds that most advanced countries have? What could we have done creatively with fiber optic speeds? Shame, Shame, Shame.

All of this rottenness is because of the Plutocracy we suffer to live under.