

7521380085.txt

With 650,000 submissions, I hope that we, the American people, have made our voices heard regarding the protection of Net Neutrality. I truly hope that a free, open internet ecosystem where internet service providers cannot discriminate or prioritize content. I strongly encourage the FCC to reclassify both broadband and mobile internet access as Title II common carriers. Thank you for your time.