

7521380462.txt

Please consider the importance of RFD-TV to not only the rural population, but to others who want and need to know about rural news and the impact it has on the economy. We watch educational programming, rural news, and programs for entertainment. It is the PRIMARY channel we watch on our Direct TV network channel programming. Do not single out the rural population by allowing this programming to be deleted.