

7521388699.txt

DO NOT let the cable companies take over the internet. It's absolutely ridiculous that you would let a few companies dictate everyone's lives. How is any startup supposed to compete with these giants? You are going to kill innovation in this country if you let them take over.