

7521389122.txt

Please continue our ability to view RFD TV and Rural America channels. The information and opinions of these programs are very very important to our country and all people having the opportunity to know and understand the importance of agriculture in our country. Where our food comes from and the people who grow and raise crops and animals for our food.