

7521390161.txt

We watch RFDTV more than any other channel. It has good, healthy entertainment. It has many educational programs that you will not see on any other network. It has much information for the rural population and informative for the urban population as well. The weather programs are very good too. We would be at a loss without this Channel.
Dale & Hilda Sayler