

7521479891.txt

Freedom of speech is the backbone of our country and if we censor the internet, we lose any type of competitive edge we have over nations like China who shield their citizens, like children, from information.