

7521482667.txt

Please do not mess with net neutrality! It will only lead to hijacking and portioning web traffic in negative ways that will unequally impact poor people and people who do not have access to education and information in equal ways which can only be negative to society as a whole. thank you for listening to reason.