

7521593688.txt

The internet was paid for by our tax dollars in 1950, none of these companies own any part of it . The american public does and they should be paying us to use it for their advertising and part of their profit.