

7521593834.txt

It is strategically important that you throw out your stifling FCC rules and reclassify ISPs as Common Carriers to prevent rampant online discrimination and protect real Net Neutrality. This is the only viable solution, being the very best way forward for all and everyone.