Dear FCC,

My name is Henry Lee Rudolph Jr. and I live in Murray, UT.

Net neutrality, the principle that Internet service providers (ISPs) treat all data that travels over their networks equally, is important to me because without it ISPs could have too much power to determine my Internet experience by providing better access to some services but not others.

A pay-to-play Internet worries me because ISPs could act as the gatekeepers to their subscribers.

The Internet is important to me because, as an aspiring musician and actor, I need to know that there will not be barriers to entry for the new ideas and services. Get out of bed with corporations. You are ruining freedom, and hindering the lives of many for the benefit of some.

Sincerely,

Henry Lee Rudolph Jr.
