

7521639277.txt

Please do not let this buyout occur. The cable companies are already one of the highest monthly bills that a consumer has to pay for and allowing for such a merger would not prevent the parent company from raising the prices of their services to an exorbitant monthly amount and causing a monopoly.