

7521642894.txt

Comcast has poor customer service. Making them bigger won't fix it. The government gave the cable companies a monopoly on cable, and even allowed surcharges to let them build that monopoly.

Comcast has done many things that I don't agree with, the most recent done to me was changing my level of service without my permission, under the guise of saving me money. I am preparing to drop their service and move to another low quality internet provider, Frontier.