

7521676638.txt

There is already too much disparity on who has access to the internet. It is unethical and discriminatory to allow this two-tiered system. Please uphold net neutrality and at the very least stop this blatant privatization of public rights and access to the much needed media access.