

7521677990.txt

I believe it is my right to have equal access to all information on the internet without paying different rates depending on what I am wanting to access. The internet should be an open and equal playing field.