

7521701058.txt

I want to support equality for all. The internet has progress technology, art, science, at a speed never become possible. This is because everyone is able to communicate with one another to build ideas. This also promotes peace in the future, as cultures that are oppressed receive education that they never had access to. If you stunt the speed, you will stunt the progress.