

7521701761.txt

Keep RFD-TV on Direct TV. I live in a rural area and we only get Satellite TV, Internet and a poor excuse for telephone service. It would be an injustice to rural families for us not to have one station that we can watch and learn from. No, I do not have a lot of acreage or own a lot of cattle but I do own a few acres and learn a lot from RFD on how to make the most of this land. Thank you.