

7521727985.txt

if we lose RFD tv, we will no longer have any interest in having direct tv, which we've had since 1997... the other stations show too much violence and profanity, we're country people who enjoy watching clean, entertaining programs... which is what RFD TV has and without it, we might as well just watch our local channels which we can watch for free with our antenna