

7521728704.txt

If this merger is approved, please ensure that the new company carry RFD TV. The control of the media is in fewer and fewer hands, which has implications for democracy. However, on a more mundane note, we in rural America depend on this channel and would like to see it continue in the newly merged company.