

7521728988.txt

I oppose the proposed merger of Time Warner and Comcast as all it will do is create a monopoly in an industry that is already charging their subscribers too much and offering too little. Instead, the FCC should investigate what I consider as questionable billing practices. Another drawback of this proposed merger is the likelihood that healthy and informative programming such as that presently offered by RFDTV will be dropped.