

7521730140.txt

I can't believe that there are large companies out there that always stomp on the little guy and get away with it . My wife and I watch this channel (RFD TV) a lot for information that we use every day because we live in a big farming community and work with the farmers every day. It would be very wrong for this channel be taken away from the very people that feed this great nation. This channel provides valuable information and is much needed.