

7521730830.txt

We are extremely concerned that this merger will endanger the future of rural, family oriented programming. Safeguards should be included so that consumers continue to have access to networks such as RFD.