

7521735253.txt

I can barely afford the internet i have now without net neutrality and prices going up i won't be able to afford it at all and the Internet will lose purpose and more and more people will have no choice but to stop using it and find ways to get what they need or want from the internet please keep net neutrality