

7521735364.txt

I support rural programming and stations that are dedicated to serving the needs and interests of rural America. Urban residents should also have the right to select programming from a channel that helps them connect with their rural family, friends and roots. Please protect rural programming in these mergers.