

7521735564.txt

The RFDTV channel is very important to myself and many others in rural America. It is a channel that not only carries important information for our life but also the entertainment packages are always family friendly. From Grandpa/Grandma down to the youngest in the family, we call all set down together and watch entertaining and informative TV. If these mergers continue we will be creating a monopoly for these corporations and that is not a principal this country was founded on.