

7521737518.txt

Please consider that this merger is not in the best interest of the television consumer. There are not enough cable TV providers to ensure that there are fair choices being made available to the American public.
I live in the Philadelphia suburbs and find rural themed channels such as RFD TV extremely informative and entertaining.
I am not British, Spanish, nor Middle Eastern, yet have no trouble finding many channels that cater to these cultures.

Thank You