

7521745308.txt

As a 31 year Life Member of REACT International, and a 36 year member of the organization, with many years involved in Midwest storm spotting, I am in favor of the change in terminology regarding weather watches/warnings. The two current terms can be very confusing and do not adequately describe the imminent problem.

Using a new set of terms that will be more direct and informative, I believe, will be of tremendous help to the public.