

7521746074.txt

We live in a small, rural town in CO and I want to comment on how important rural channels like RFDTV and RURAL TV are to us. We would be devastated if these channels were taken off the air!! They are not just entertaining, but also extremely important to us for the rural news we get which we can't get anywhere else!! Please remember there is a huge population of people that live in rural areas and depend on these channels. Thank you.