

7521746111.txt

Please know that there is very good programming on rural tv like RFDTV. Millions of Americans love to watch various programs from horemanship to beef cattle. You don't have to be from rural America to enjoy their programs. Many people grew up in rural America and they like keeping informed about their roots. Please protect there right to remain a viable tv station even if you allow this merger.