

7521746259.txt

My husband and I are farmers. We use RFD-TV as a good source of information for our cattle operation and as good clean entertainment in our household. In a time when it is difficult to find good decent programming, it is good to know that we have one channel that we can turn to anytime and know that we are not going to be subjected to vulgarities. I urge you not to take RFD-TV away from our programs.