

7521749991.txt

Please continue to support net neutrality and do not allow telecommunication corporations to restrict access. "Fast lanes" for those that can afford it, hurts the people who use the internet the most and restricts open communication and in the end democracy.