

7521751774.txt

Please allow the American people to have choice in their lives. It is important that rural programming be available to country and city folks. Most families are at least three generations away from the farm and food production. They do not know how or where their food is provided to the place they shop. Rural TV provides some measure of filling that knowledge gap. Protect us in rural areas, keep rural programming available. Thank you.