

7521752572.txt

I oppose this proposed merger/takeover between AT&T and DirectTV. This will further consolidate the pay television industry and reduce competition further. Prices are already too high and service is not as good as it should be. If allowed, this merger will result in higher prices, further degradation of service and less competitive choice in a marketplace already short on competition.