

7521755064.txt

WE went with Direct TV because they were the only ones to offer RFD. Being retired we enjoy the classic country shows found on RFD. The programming is family oriented and we enjoy watching it. You need to keep this channel active because it is not showing violence or murder or other crazy themes. If you can include other language channels which I don't need, RFD should stay in the lineup.