

7521756777.txt

Save our tv from high cost of the big companies. As a single mom I do not ask for any government assistance however I just would like to be able to view local tv. This is a way to stay connected to the world around us so that we can raise our children with a social awareness.