

7521756973.txt

I am very in favor of maintaining net neutrality and keeping the internet open. No fast lanes, please. It will inhibit the economy as new sites will not have the funds to pay for access that established players have. It will stifle creativity.