

7521757073.txt

Consolidation of ownership has silenced local voices, resulted in job reduction via "efficiencies" and severely affected work opportunities in Radio, TV, and "for cable" programming. Early attempts to diversify ownership have been curtailed with six corporations owning 90% of American Media. see:

<http://www.businessinsider.com/these-6-corporations-control-90-of-the-media-in-america-2012-6>

If the media jobs opportunities created by the FCC under Chmn Newton Minow, which mandated split AM and FM programming & the All-Channel Receiver Act, are ever to return this is the FCC's opportunity to do it. Re-establish sensible ownership rules geared to increase media jobs opportunities. Thank you for your attention.