

7521758017.txt

I support independent networks and I support the importance of rural family oriented programming. RFDTV should be able to continue as an independent network