

7521758446.txt

I am opposed to any monopolies that would create an environment where programming could be controlled because of the size and power of the combined companies. All options should be available to the viewer no matter if it is a left or right wing program.