

7521765566.txt

This is actually about free speech, something fundamental to our American way. Not supporting net neutrality means the more money corporations have the louder their voice, even on the internet which is a defender of freedom here and all around the world. Please support net neutrality and support America as the bastion of freedom we have always been.