

7521766923.txt

Please do not allow a monopoly of the internet. The use should be available for Americans at a low cost and competition is the key. If Comcast merges, then smaller companies will not have a say. Why should one company dictate the future of information and raise the costs. This is not good for our society.